CHARCOAL COOKING

In the wine list you will find wines that we ourselves would love to enjoy if we were in your place.

We work closely with many wine importers to deliver you a wine with a reasonable value.

There are wines from all types of “Boxes”, Conventional, Organic, Biodynamic and Natural Wine.

Organic Wine

Wine has been made from organically grown grapes for some decades, indeed arguably organic viticulture is a return to pre-war, less intensive agriculture practices, but only since the 2012 vintage has there been a definition of organic wine in EU. Organic wine has to be made from grapes grown under certified organic practices, but in addition there are restrictions on winemaking, including the use of reduced levels of the anti-oxidant and anti-microbial agent sulphur dioxide (SO<sub>2</sub>)

Biodynamic Wine

Biodynamic viticulture is a more holistic approach towards organic farming developed by Rudolf Steiner. It utilizes homeopathic treatments of special preparations of herbal sprays and composts applied the right time taking into account astrological influences and lunar cycles. It looks at the vineyards as part of the planet and the entire solar system that everything has an impact upon each other. Biodynamic techniques create wines that uncover each vineyard's truth and potential. The wines made this way are described to be true to its soil, varietal and climate. It represents its specific place of origin, aroma, flavour and texture.

Natural Wine

Natural Wine is farmed organically (or biodynamically) and made (or rather transformed) without adding or removing anything in the cellar. No additives or processing aids are used, and 'intervention' in the naturally occurring fermentation process is kept to a minimum. As such neither fining nor (tight) filtration are used. The result is a living wine – wholesome and full of naturally occurring microbiology. Some natural wines are delicious, and some are just flat-out weird. But the passion behind the movement makes the natural wine world hard to ignore. At their best these wines can be thrilling. Just be ready for unpredictability.

RED WINE – Burgundy, France

2017 Naudin-Ferrand 'La Plante d'A Côté', Pinot Noir, Burgundy, France 2200 thb (O)

In addition to a crunchy fruit, there is this little lively side brought by the volcanic soil. This wine is at once round fruity, sweet, with light smoky notes and a nice freshness.

Light, fresh, depth, earth and layers of minerals.

2015 Domaine Michel Lafarge Bourgogne Passetoutgrain "L'Exception", Pinot Noir-Gamy 2900 thb (B)

It has a lovely nose, perhaps a little more floral than the regular cuvee. Perhaps on the palate there is a touch more piquancy with fine acidity and the finish shows impressive precision. 90RP.

2014 Domaine Thibault Liger-Belair Moulin-a-vent "Les Perelles", Gamay, Beaujolais 3000 thb (B)

There is a crisp, granitic red berry bouquet that is nicely detailed. The palate is citrus fresh on the entry with fine tannin and joyful, tart red cherry fruit, and then it turns very structured towards the finish. 89-91RP

2016 Domaine Gros Frère et Soeur Bourgogne, Pinot Noir 3000 thb

A fresh and bright nose reflects notes of various red berries and plenty of earth character. The delicious, round and fleshy flavours possess an attractive sense of energy on the saline-inflected finish.

2015 Domaine Arnoux-Lachaux Bourgogne Pinot Fin, Pinot Fin 3200 thb

The bouquet is forward and quite floral offering a lovely expression of red and dark fruits and a nice impression of minerality for this level. On the palate generous and weighty fruit – nice vibrant freshness. It's very complex and intense for this level.

2014 Lucien Le Moine Volnay 1er Cru "Chanlin", Pinot Noir, Côtes de Beaune 4100 thb

It has a breezy red cherry and crushed strawberry scented bouquet that is nicely defined. The palate is medium-bodied with crisp, quite firm tannin. Like many Volnays, it errs towards Pommard-like in structure with a touch of spice on the bitter cherry finish.

2015 Domaine Arnoux-Lachaux Vosne-Romanee, Pinot Noir, Côte de Nuits 4700 thb

A more deeply pitched and distinctly spicier nose combines notes of violet, plum, black cherry and a hint of sandalwood. There is a seductive, even silky mouth feel to the very supple, round and delicious flavours that are underpinned by dusty tannins on the well-balanced and persistent finish. Lovely stuff fashioned in an understated style.

Yann Durieux “Les Ponts”, Pinot Noir, Burgandy, France 5200 thb (N)

When you first smell this wine, you will notice a faint raspberry aroma that slowly gives way to more usual Pinot references such as forest floor and mushrooms with overtones of field herbs.

Yann Durieux “Tête de Ponts”, Pinot Noir, Burgandy, France 7800 thb (N)

Made from a parcel of grapes originally destined for Premiers Ponts, but vinified in new oak barrel, since all barrels are new once upon a time... Yann did not wish the new oak portion to be blended into Premiers Ponts and so created Tete de Ponts to allow this experiment.

2015 Domaine Trapet Pere et Fils Gevrey-Chambertin 1er Cru "Capita", Pinot Noir, Côte de Nuits 7900 thb

This is perhaps the most floral-inflected wine in the range with its exceptionally pretty nose that reflects notes of lavender, lilac, rose and violet along with earthy and fresh red currant aromas that are trimmed in subtle but not invisible wood influence. This is also quite generously proportioned with fine mid-palate concentration to the medium weight flavours that exude a subtle minerality on the powerful and well-balanced finish. 93BH

2015 Jean Grivot Clos de Vougeot Grand Cru, Pinot Noir, Côte de Nuits 12000 thb

Moderate wood sets off the ripe and fresh if restrained aromas of soft earth, mocha and spicy dark currant, humus and forest floor scented-nose. There is exceptionally good volume and richness to the palate coating and velvet-textured big-bodied flavors that display outstanding power, punch and intensity on the rustic and ever-so-slightly warm finish.

2014 Domaine Arnoux-Lachaux Echezeaux Grand Cru, Pinot Noir, Côte de Nuits 14000 thb

A pronounced floral character is quite evident on the strikingly fresh nose of black cherry aromas that are amply cut with a variety of spice, tea and discreet earth notes. The moderately broad-shouldered and velvet-textured flavours possess excellent precision on the mouth coating, firm and entirely serious finish that displays outstanding length. This isn't particularly elegant but there is impressive complexity.

2014 Domaine Trapet Pere et Fils Chambertin Grand Cru, Pinot Noir, Côte de Nuits 17000 thb

Interestingly this is aromatically quite similar to the nose of the Latricières though there is just a bit more wood in evidence. By contrast there is more size, weight, power and muscle to the big-bodied and equally mineral-driven flavors that also brim with copious amounts of dry extract that coats the palate and buffers the even firmer tannic backbone on the driving, hugely long and youthfully austere finale.

2010 Clos de Tart, Pinot Noir, Côte de Nuits 20000 thb

The nose is so ineffably pure that it is guaranteed to bring a tear to the eye. In a strange way it reminds me of a top Armand Rousseau with its awe-inspiring transparency. The palate is ethereal - divine balance, a gentle grip, a saline edge and poise on the finish that takes your breath away. Iron fist in a velvet glove, etc. This is surely legend in the making. 98RP

2013 Meroi ros di buri, Merlot, Friuli-Venezia Giulia 2700 thb

2014 Domaine de Montille Puligny-Montrachet 1er Cru "Les Cailleret", Chardonnay 7100 thb

*Here the nose is actually quite similar to that of the Perrières save for being ever-so-slightly riper and displaying more overt white orchard fruit influence.
